complaint against a white man for keeping a vicious dog. The plaintiff alleged that he was walking on Queen street, near Fairfax, yesterday when the capine attacked him, sinking its teeth into the calf of his leg. He ex-hibited the wound. It is alleged that the same dog on a recent occasion at-tacked a passerby and tore his clothes. It was ordered that the owner of the annimal be cited to appear and show cause why he should not be fixed or have the dog killed.

William Grainey, who was arrested last week for stealing $121 from Marshall Cheshire, his stepfather, was re-lessed. The boy had been detained at the station house since last week. All

The fruit dealer subsequently made complaint against them at the station house. The acting Mayor, on account of their youth, dismissed the accused with an admonition, warning them of the consequences if they molested the complainant again.
